MINISTERIAL UNION WILL START CRUSADE TODAY

STEGE SEWER STARTS ON MONDAY

Forty Thousand Dollar Sanitary System Will Be Installed Within Sixty Working Days, Says Meyer.

TWELVE-TON ROLLER NOW ON SCENE FOR THE START

Fifteen or Twenty Men Will Get Employment From Local Man When Work Begins—City May Connect.

Work commences on Monday on the $40,000 sewer system which Fred Meyer, the contractor, will install in the Stege district. The big job, which calls for the laying of 17,000 feet of sanitary sewer pipe, will be completed in about sixty days, providing the weather holds out long enough to let the digging of the trenches proceed.

Yesterday a big twelve-ton, fifty horse-power roller arrived and it will be used on the job. Meyer declares that between fifteen and twenty men will be put to work next week.

The system will run to Pullman, so that when the city installs a system there it can be connected up, after an agreement is reached calling for Richmond to pay her portion of installing and the cost of maintenance.

KNIGHTS PYTHIAS

SPECIAL CAR leaves Sixth street switch at 7:25 p. m. sharp this evening for K. of P. Hall, Oakland, with candidates and members.

'COPS' BAR THE NEWS MEN FROM ALL STORIES

"You can't warm your feet on MY stove," is the charming little ditty being sung around police headquarters these days. The chief has also shown himself to be a regular Caruso when it comes to warbling. "Put on the soft, soft pedal."

And take it from the News, Mr. Taxpayer, the boys who sport the bluecoat and stars know which side of their bread is being buttered, and they have put on the pedal. One would hardly believe that a policeman could keep quiet, until the force was visited last night.

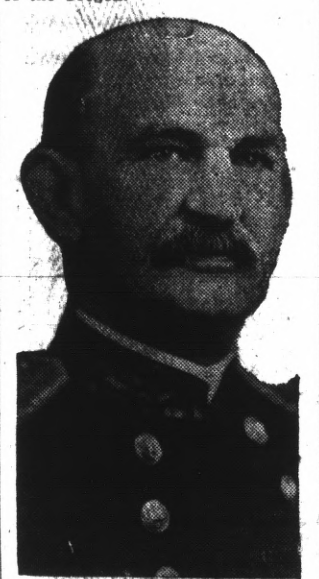

The chief last night quietly took the News man aside and informed him that he might as well scratch the police station off his list. "You will not get any information there any more," is the way he put it.

Then the News man asked if it were not possible as a citizen for him to call at the station which was being conducted on the people's money. The answer he got was something like a growl, which when translated means "Nix."

Yes, the chief has taken the station as his own. The Daily News will continue to print every morning as in the past. It will be just as breezy, brisk and lively as of yore. And the police octopus can continue—that is if the people like it.

Last evening the Daily News almost got a story, despite what the chief said. The station was deserted when the News man called. The telephone was ringing. The News man sent a story and soon got on the trail of where the call was coming from.

REAR ADMIRAL MAYO, A new commander with the Atlantic fleet in Mexican waters, and formerly of the Oregon.

FIRE WHISTLE GETS SECOND TRYOUT

A new whistle for the city fire alarm system was received yesterday and tried out at the Santa Fe roundhouse last evening. The whistle is much shriller than the one formerly used, but Superintendent Roy Le Moine of the Gamewell Company will improve it by adjustment. The one tried last evening has a ten-inch bell, divided into three compartments, and is of the much-used chime type.

LeMoine also stated that the police phone and flash system will be in working order by Sunday, as he will have the batteries and switches installed today.

"The public be damned," evident views of James C. Owens, as shown by his legislative record.

WRIT STAYS HANDS OF COURT

Mooney, Hanlon and Brown Must Be in Supreme Court Next Monday and This Stops Court From Acting.

INDICATIONS ARE THAT RELEASE OF MEN LIKELY

Pacific Gas & Electric Co. Expose Hand in Hearing Which Took Place in San Francisco Recently.

A writ of habeas corpus has been issued by the Supreme Court of the state of California, as petitioned for by Attorney Henry B. Lister in behalf of Thomas Mooney, Joe Brown and H. C. Hanlon, who are held at the county jail on charges of illegally having explosives in their possession, preferred by the Richmond police and which offense is made a felony.

The writ, which is made returnable before the Supreme Court in San Francisco on Monday, March 23, was served upon Sheriff R. R. Veale and District Attorney A. B. McKenzie this afternoon by Selig Schulberg, representing the Iron Workers' Defense League and J. Morganthau, president of the Pacific District Council No. 1, P. M. E. W.

The fact that the Supreme Court has after this late date granted the writ to issue is taken as an indication that the conditions are favoring the release of the accused prisoners. J. J. Barrett, acting for the Pacific Gas & Electric Co. in the special prosecution undertaken against the three men by the corporation, declared before Judge Latimer, at the time of the arraignment of the accused, the act of the Supreme Court having failed to act at that time was an indication that the tribunal would not issue the writ. Obviously it is interpreted that there is merit in the contention of the defendants or the writ would not have been issued after this delay.

Attorney Henry B. Lister maintains that the possession of fulminating caps, which were found in the boat at the time the men were arrested is not included in the section of the code making the possession of dynamite for anything but legitimate purposes a crime.

At the time he applied to the Supreme Court for a writ several weeks ago it was said the writ had been denied, but was mistaken in the statement to the extent that the court had refused to issue the writ forthwith and desired to take the application under its consideration.

Owens favors allowing the youth of the land to spend their nights in dissipation. He is opposed to all reform measures.

STUDENTS DANCE 'NEATH RUDDY LANTERNS

Under red Japanese lanterns, which cast a ruddy glow throughout the hall, members of the Polytechnic Social Club enjoyed themselves at another of their monthly dances last night. The hall was crowded, and all present had a good time. The rag dances were tabooed, and "strictly society" was the order of the evening. Punch was served.

The committees in charge of the affair were as follows: Reception—L. Pitchford, A. Gray, O. Silva, E. Landrebe and J. Farnocchia; decoration—C. Diaz, C. Zueck, E. Cooney, A. Pieper and P. Norris; refreshments—E. Carling and F. Noria.

FARGO BANK PARADE CAUSES FURORE ALONG MACDONALD

Old timers stroked their beards and gazed in awe as a real-to-goodness fargo bank outfit made its entry into the city yesterday, via the Espee road, and was paraded down Macdonald avenue. Club members flitted here and there and ministers rushed forth to see what was going to happen.

"Well, I guess they are going to finish the job and gamble on the streets," declared one matron. Another whispered: "Yes, and they are going to finish up their ignominious careers with some real live proceedings. We will stop them even if we have to form a vigilante committee."

Thus the word went around, but the Wells Fargo driver heeded not the interest he was creating and went on his way. At Sixth street he turned the corner and drove into the office of his company. Then he jerked the gambling outfit on his wagon. At this point a number of the curious inquired what was happening. Then it was discovered that the local aerie of Eagles will soon put on a "Days of '49" show, and the "birds" had secured the paraphernalia for their entertainment. Calm once more rested on our peaceful city.

HIGH JINKS OF EAGLES SOME EVENT

High jinks and smoker is right. That is what the Pt. Richmond Aerie of Eagles had last night in A. O. U. W. Hall. Members of the order and prospective candidates had a real night of fun. At the conclusion of the business meeting a banquet and program that has never been excelled in Richmond followed. Liquid refreshments a-plenty were also on hand to cap the evening's fun.

The spacious lodge rooms were well filled with the Eagles and the prospective Eagles. The get-together spirit prevailed and before adjournment was taken the strangers were acquainted with the entire membership of the order.

August 9 was selected as the date for the big annual Eagles' picnic. The picnic will be held at East Shore Park. Later committees will be appointed, with instructions to work out all details toward making the picnic the biggest affair ever given under the auspices of the lodge.

The meeting last night was honored by the presence of Past State Trustee J. C. Holland of Fruitvale, who expressed himself as delighted with the evident good fellowship he saw during the evening.

Stories were told, instruments were played and songs were sung, and before the assemblage realized it the hour was late.

Those who participated in the program last night were:

Piano player, Len Clark of Oakland; comic singers, Bert McCloud and Otto Camp; violin players, W. F. Logan and A. M. Mathews; soloist, Roy Patterson; comic readers, W. F. Scarry and E. M. Malone.

George A. Kennedy, major of the drum corps, presided as chairman of the evening.

MANUFACTURERS ORGANIZE FOR PROTECTION

The manufacturers and heads and representatives of many industrial enterprises in Contra Costa county will assemble at the San Francisco Commercial Club at noon today to formally organize the Contra Costa Manufacturers' Association. This organization will be similar to the associations now organized in San Francisco, Oakland and other cities and counties and it is expected will be of great benefit to the manufacturers.

W. H. George, general manager of the Cowell Cement Works, is the leading spirit in the new movement and invitations have been extended to every manufacturer and head of an industrial enterprise in Contra Costa county. The association will look after matters pertaining to freight rates, transportation facilities, good roads, the bettering of plant sanitary conditions, procuring ample protection for employees and as cheap insurance under the new state law as possible and in fact all other matters of a similar nature with which the mill men and workers are intimately concerned. Mr. George is looking for a well attended meeting, especially when consideration is taken of the recent terminal rate fight which the manufacturers as a whole might well take up.

MAYOR GETS PAST ANOTHER TRAP AND SMILES

Billy Barnum in his palmy days would have handed Mayor Ludwig a big salary and a bonus along with it had his honor only shown the propensity for slipping out of traps as neatly as he has done in the past few days. As our friend, City Attorney Hall, would say, "the fine Italian hand" of the well-fed bunch was plainly discernible in the latest move to entrap the mayor.

Falling to get him last Monday night, one would have thought they would have given him a chance to catch his breath. But alas and alack! No such luck for his honor. Yesterday the news was divulged that a petition with sixty-five signatures attached had been filed with District Attorney McKenzie, protesting against the mayor's slaughterhouse near Albany.

It was said that it was a menace to health and should be closed. Here is how the petition read and we quote it as showing how well the petitioners are acquainted with Daniel Webster's best effort:

"The effluvia constantly arising from the decaying organic matter around Ludwig's abattoir."

Any one would have thought that extract would have been enough to floor the mayor. But no, listen: His honor comes back. The mayor states he knows that the slaughterhouse is a menace to health and is going to remove it.

Aye, there's the rub. He is going to remove it, and once more we say, "the fine Italian hand" of the enormously fed crowd had the street improvement companies has failed. And the mayor. Sly old fox.

MRS. J. E. McCANN AND MISS FLORENCE PRYER RETURN FROM SOJOURN

Mrs. J. E. McCann and her ward, Miss Florence Pryer, return home this morning on the 7:40 o'clock train from an extended tour in the Eastern states. They have been absent from Richmond for over seven months and have spent the time in visiting relatives in Newcastle, Pa.; Jamestown, O., and Chicago. The two travelers were expected home on the 9:37 last evening and a large delegation of their local friends and relatives were at the station to greet them after their long sojourn.

CLEANER CITY PLANS WILL COME UP

"Matters of Importance Are to Come Up" and Every One Is Asked to Be at Big Session.

DETERMINED STAND TO BE TAKEN, IT IS SAID

Road Houses and Other Resorts With Which City Is Infested Will Be Probed at Presbyterian Gathering.

Rumors floated about the city yesterday that something was going to drop with a thud to be heard all over the city today when the ministerial union gathers at the First Presbyterian Church. The meeting has been called for 1 p. m. and a special notice has been sent to every minister of the city to attend, AS MATTERS OF IMPORTANCE ARE TO BE TAKEN UP.

That a determined stand is to be taken to rid the city of the many resorts and the like with which it is infested, is a foregone conclusion. The ministers intend to see that the city is cleaned up, whether or not the powers that be think well of the plan.

Sermons are to be preached in all the churches calling the citizens to action against the road houses, which are said to be luring girls of tender years to their doom. Information gathered on the quiet is also to be shown and plenty of fur will fly when the church folk get started.

There is enough ammunition to sink a battleship on hand to be used and this is to be carefully gone over. It is said the city authorities will be called upon to explain why certain places are allowed to continue in business unmolested, and why, when the mayor showed the true conditions such limited action was taken.

With the backing of the respectable citizens of the town, the ministers intend to start a crusade which will not end until the city clears herself of the name of being the widest open town on the coast.

A man who does not keep his word is not fitted to represent any decent people. An honest man's word should be as good as his bond.

"All the news, all the time" is our slogan.

CIGARETTE SMOKING AND CRIME

The judge of a juvenile court in Wisconsin declares that every boy brought before him has the evidence of being a cigarette smoker upon his fingers. He says that he is satisfied that cigarette smoking has much to do with the delinquencies of the youths and that he is going to punish smoking with thirty days in jail if he can break it up no other way.

There is little doubt but that the experiences of the judge in Wisconsin can be duplicated by any judge handling a similar class of cases in the country and it is only a few years since the State School department published a pamphlet setting forth the results of its investigations on the subject among the students in the public schools.

In not a single case was a cigarette smoker a success in his class, and while some of them naturally stood higher in their studies than others, none was as high as those who did not use tobacco, and none was able to make anything like the average showing for the class. In fact the standing of the entire class was relatively lowered by the fact that it contained cigarette smokers. If that be true it is natural to suppose that since cigarette smoking lowered the mentality of its votaries, it would have the same effect of their morals because those of low mentality are never examples in morality, and that therefore there is a very clear and decided connection between cigarette smoking and crime.

Of course the evil effects of smoking cigarettes does not extend to adults in the same degree, any more than the use of intoxicants is as injurious to adults as to juveniles, but nevertheless the harm to children is so great that the law is fully justified in putting a stop to the use of tobacco, just as it endeavors to do to liquor, when the smoker is under twenty-one.

It is true of course that there is a law against the sale of tobacco to juveniles but the boys who want to smoke have no trouble in securing all the tobacco they want, and the fault does not lie with the dealers but with others.

Any teacher can very easily see whether his pupils use cigarettes. Any parent can even more easily do the same thing, and if the standing of the boys who smoke is compared with those who do not we venture the assertion that the Richmond schools will show the same results as those we mentioned above.

The boys who hang around pool rooms, who are busy doing nothing, who get into trouble are as we have pointed out all among the cigarette smokers, in fact a certain justice of the peace was so well convinced that a cigarette smoker was an idler that when one was brought before him on the charge of vagrancy he always looked at the fingers and if the tell tale stains were on the prisoner's digits thirty, sixty or ninety days was his allotment.

Parents should not overlook the importance of stopping this vice before it injures the mentality and perhaps physical and moral character. It is so easy to detect, and the importance of stopping it is so great that there is no excuse in the teacher's or parent's neglect to at least warn the youth who has started to be a cigarette fiend.

ALAS POOR OWENS

Only a few days remain before the Honorable James C. Owens, state senator from the Ninth District will be out of office. A week from next Tuesday is the eventful day when the champion of the people of Marin and Contra Costa counties against the machinations of the Barbary Coast dives, the defender of the majority against the unscrupulous Labor Unionists, the self sacrificing dodger of seven hundred and thirty-one votes; the advocate of the oppression of women, the staunch supporter of late closing of saloons, the enemy of a blue sky law, the man who thinks all progressive measures are a farce and that pledges to his constituents are to laugh, will have reached the end of his term and will be retired to private life.

While we have done our little to contribute to that desired end we plead guilty to feeling sorrowful for a man who had such excellent opportunities as Senator Owens who has thrown them all away.

His career should be a sad example to all young people who aspire to serve their country and their state in public life. They will see that in him the way to make a success is to be true to your word. In private life a man who does not keep his word is not a man entitled to much respect, and so it is in public life, to make pledges and to break them is to condemn yourself and bring upon you the humiliations that have overwhelmed Owens.

Young men will see that being a good fellow is not every thing, and that a young man who serves as a legislator is expected to be busy with his work, and not with other things, the nature of which has not been disclosed, and evidently the senator does not desire to disclose, since if they had been ideal and for the good of his constituents he would have offered them as excuses for his seven hundred and thirty-one absences from roll call.

Senators who dodge so many roll calls are not looked upon with much favor by their colleagues. They are looked upon as drones, and they accomplish nothing of importance. Senator Owens only succeeded in getting four bills passed, and none of them needed any great effort, or show any great ability in securing their passage. Compare the record made by one of his colleagues and it will be seen that not one single senator had such a poor record. Other men did or tried to do something, but Owens neither did nor tried. He never showed up except when there was a good measure to be fought.

You can always judge the position of a member of a legislature by the bills he supports, or he introduces. There is usually some one or two men to whom any wild measure that amounts to nothing, and that no one of any standing will touch is given. The bill to cripple the Railroad Commission is a bill of that sort and it bears the name of Owens. In the fact that he was selected to introduce and father such a measure is clearly shown the estimate in which he was held, even by the outside clinek. Can any one imagine Senator Boynton, Senator Shanahan, Senator Wright, or Senator Caminetti introducing such a bill? Why, no one would have the nerve to even suggest such a thing to them. That Owens was picked out as the introducer speaks volumes from the general estimation of the man.

Do the people of the Ninth District want to be represented by such a man? Do they want to have it said that the Ninth District amounts to nothing?

NO POLITICAL BUNGOMBE NOW.

District Attorney McKenzie has taken the wisest and best course. He does not propose to allow his office to be made a catspaw to drag John C. Owens' chestnuts out of the political fire, or to distract public attention from the real issue that is before the people of the Ninth Senatorial District, to be settled at the polls March 31 next.

If there are any forged signatures to the petitions against Owens they can be discovered and the signers punished just as easily after that date as now, and Owens will suffer nothing by the delay, because even if there be such forgeries their number is not, even by him, claimed to be large enough to defeat the right of the balance of the petitioners to demand a recall election.

It is, of course, a mere subterfuge on the part of James C. Owens. He has been unable to answer one of the numerous charges against him, and he is only able to make the plea that he is a good fellow, which no one will deny, and that like the aduress of the Bible, he who is without sin alone should cast any stone at him. So far as we know there is no one in the district who is be classed with James C. Owens in the matter of an unsatisfactory political record, and therefore there is no one who can justly be excluded from criticising him. Certainly our last assemblymen, Johnston or Jones, are not in the dodging class by any means, and Senator Martinelli was considered one of the most efficient and active members of the Senate, so they are not among those who, being Owens' counterparts, must not criticise him, the rest of the community not having been to Sacramento as legislators, are certainly able to cast stones if they feel that stone casting be justified.

The truth is that Owens has made such a miserable record that he is unable to offer any excuse for his shortcomings and therefore is in the pitiable condition of being forced to beg for help under any pretense possible. He is trying to excite pity by saying that the petitions contained forged signatures, he is appealing to the decent vote by denouncing the dive-keepers of Barbary Coast, and he is catching at every straw he can. It is all buncombe, however, and will deceive no one.

THE BIGOTRY OF SCIENCE

It is amusing to note the announcement of the Association of Astronomers that Father Ricard can not join their organization because he is not a scientific man. The charge is so absurd, and shows so clearly the jealousy and pettiness of those who make it that it is surprising that they had not the common judgment to place themselves in such a ridiculous position.

They have certain theories. They have the two best telescopes in the world, and they are the recipients of the bounty of two millionaires, because another man has advanced another theory, which has at least the justification of plausibility, but which they were not fortunate enough to discover themselves, they try to insult him by their pettiness in excluding him from their society.

We do not know if the theory of the sun spots will prove to be correct, only time will do that, but it certainly has seemed to be justified by results of predictions predicted upon it, but to say that its author is not scientific is to write the person making the statement down an ass.

Personally it would seem more than likely that the theory is correct because of the very fact that the other astronomers, whom we suppose claim to be scientific, are evidently afraid that it is. They have offered no argument to prove its falsity, except that so far it does not agree with other theories that they learned, and which they have believed in. All history shows that jealousy is usually the result of success, and that persons who never amount to anything never excite jealousy.

The invention of the telegraph, of the steam engine, of the wireless telegraph, of the leading discoveries in medicine, of nearly every scientific fact have the same experience as Father Ricard.

The announcement is made that James Gordon Bennett, who is the owner of the New York Herald, is dangerously ill. He has for many years expatriated himself, and the Herald still is a prominent paper of this country, and to the United States what the Times was to England, which was its founder's ambition. In fact outside of New York the Herald has little circulation and is chiefly notable for the fact that it has a fine foreign service.

Apologizing for the bill to force Americans to pay tolls passing through the Panama Canal one of its defenders declares that the war vessels if they pay tolls would be paying them back to the nation and as it owns both the ships and the canal it would be just shifting the money from one pocket to another. But is not the nation the people, and do they not own the merchant ships also?

Every dollar of the taxpayers' money wasted is a dollar that they have labored hard to earn. It means, consequently, so many hours of hard work by those who labor for their daily bread. If those who wasted it put their hands into the pockets of their victims and helped themselves to it, the result would be the same, so far as the owners of the money are concerned.

Father Ricard's storm came allright last Monday, although it did not rain, but with the thermometer reaching the nineties in the middle of March, the predictions of a disturbance in the atmosphere was fully born out.

Attacking the signatures of those who signed the petition for a recall does no prove that the charges made against the senator are untrue.

Senator Owens may find that making careless charges about those who are favoring his recall is not as safe as he thought it was.

TO DISCUSS THE HOME RULE AMENDMENT

A number of stirring addresses will be made tomorrow night at the home rule in taxation meeting, which will be held in the Lincoln School auditorium at 8 o'clock. All property owners who are in the least interested are asked to be present. The home rule in taxation amendment is one of the most important to be voted on this fall.

Among those who are to address the meeting are M. J. Wells, organizer of the Home Rule in Taxation League; Judge John Roth, Councilman William L. Lane and H. J. Wildgrube. Free literature bearing on the subject will be distributed at the meeting. Everyone is cordially invited to attend.

KANE HAS HAND BADLY MANGLED

While handling a section of iron pipe yesterday afternoon, E. C. Kane, an employee of the Western Pipe and Steel Company, who resides at the Germania Hotel, had his right hand badly mangled. The injured man was rushed to the office of Dr. Abbott, where his injuries were treated. No permanent injury will result from the accident, it is thought.

LOOKING FOR TROUBLE

Anybody having trouble with the eyes can find relief at Suite 1, Pillow Bldg., Seventh and Macdonald ave., the local office of Dr. J. H. Schroder, the German Optometrist and Optician of San Francisco. Office hours from 9 to 12 a. m. every Monday, Wednesday and Friday, and by appointment.

Richmond, Cal., Mar. 6, 1914.
Dr. Schroder: In order to thank you for your good services I would like to make public my appreciation. Having suffered for many years with pains over my eyes, and consulting many opticians, but their glasses would only serve for a short time, but at last I have found comfort and now am without trouble after many years of trouble, and anyone who would like to find out, write or call on me at my home.
Respectfully yours,

The Tailors are known as the "Hitless Wonders." Yet they are also known as a club that makes more runs on less hits than any club in this section. All of which means that they run those base wild—most of the time.

However, Richmond has the best receiver of any of those semi-pro clubs around here and when the tall or crew attempts to carry on its old system of pilfering those sacks, Cliff Cleek will be on the job.

Burns will probably start for the locals, and this is almost enough to insure local fans that the army of the invasion will run up no armful of runs. On the other hand, the heavier for the visitors has an average of ten strikeouts a game for the season. All this summed up means that the best battle of this season or any other season is on tap for the fans Sunday afternoon. Dop your rooting togs again.

The funeral of the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kell R. Jenkins was held yesterday afternoon from the Clark Undertaking parlors. The services were private. The body was interred in the Sunset View Cemetery.

MACCABEES TO STAGE WHIST PARTY

The Richmond Lodge of Maccabees is planning a whist party, which will be given in Bank Hall Friday night. Elaborate preparations, which have been in process of formation, are now complete. The sum of 25 cents will be charged for the score cards. The evening will be concluded with dancing and refreshments. The committee in charge of the affair is Mrs. H. A. Church, Mrs. E. B. Stegeman, Mrs. E. Griffin and Mrs. A. McLean.

What was Jimmie doing during those seven hundred and thirty-one roll calls? That is the question. Will James C. Owens dare answer it? We are certain he will not.

TO THE VOTERS OF THE FIRST SUPERVISOR DISTRICT, CON- TRA COSTA, CAL.

I hereby announce myself a candidate for the office of Supervisor to represent the people of the above District on the Board of Supervisors of Contra Costa County.

Primary Election August 25, 1914.
General Election Nov. 3, 1914.

As under the existing law the election for County Offices is non-partisan, I propose to base my candidacy upon a determination to act as an official in a non-partisan manner and not to be swayed in my official conduct by political or other influences.

Very respectfully,

HIGH STUDENTS TO COMPETE ON OVAL

The big interclass track meet of the local high school will be held this afternoon. So much interest has been taken in the event that the meet might well be one of the mid-season varsity kind. A big crowd of students will assemble at the West Shore oval, where the event will be held, to cheer the representatives of their respective classes.

Over fifty athletes have signed up for the meet and strong competition is expected in every event. The seniors have an excellent chance with Donnelly, Lipp, Jake Axelsson and Adams in fine form for their events. The juniors' strong man is Angell, who on account of a bad ankle may not compete. Cameron, Brown, Bar and McCann will carry the hopes of the sophomores, while the "white hope" dark horses of the freshmen are Cain, Hawkins, Lee and Weyand. Two local high school boys, Norman Janke and Earl McCann, will be made happy by the return of Mrs. J. E. McCann and her ward, Miss Florence Pryer, who arrived this morning from an extended tour of the Eastern states. Mrs. McCann has been away for over seven months, so that Earl will celebrate his mother's homecoming by being absent from school today. Norman will probably attend school.

TANGO PARTY IN CASTLE OF PYTHIANS

The Richmond Tango and Social Club dance, held last night in Pythian Hall, was well attended, and those present had an evening of fun mastering the new dances, which have taken the world by storm. Many attended who did not understand the mysteries of the seductive tango and the hesitation, but they progressed rapidly under the capable tuition given them by the more experienced fancy dancers. The music was good, the floor was good and the crowd was a jolly one, and what more was needed to make the evening one of pleasure?

DANSANT IS HELD IN SEQUOIA HALL

Richmond Lodge of Praetorians held a dancing party in Sequoia Hall last night. The affair was one of the most enjoyable in the history of the organization, and the floor was crowded with merry dancers. The committee which in a large measure was responsible for the success of the dansant was composed of E. Claven, O. E. Bowles and T. E. Endliena. The party was so successful that the Praetorians contemplate the giving of another one in the near future. Rodell's orchestra furnished the music last night.

BODY FOUND IN THE BAY IS BURIED

The true circumstances surrounding the death and the identity of the man whose body was found floating in the bay off Point Orient last week will remain a mystery forever. Several days ago Deputy Coroner Smallwood buried the body, which was in a badly decomposed condition, as a result of being in the water for over a month.

While the body was in the undertaking parlors it was viewed by many and Coroner Smallwood and the chief of police had hopes that its identification would be established.

The woman who votes to retain James C. Owens in the State Senate votes to oppress her sex and to degrade it by overwork.

DIAMOND STAR TO MAKE THIS CITY HOME

Eddie Regan, whose name is in more baseball record books than you have fingers and toes, and who was at one time a member of the famous Baltimore Orioles in the American League, arrived in Richmond yesterday, and declared his intention of residing here permanently. Regan is known wherever baseball is a by-word and a subject of conversation. He is a personal friend and ex-tenant of such famous diamond characters as J. J. McGraw, Hughie Jennings and Bill Robinson. Regan's face will become familiar to local fans through his weekly occupancy of a vantage point on the bleachers at First street park.

TRAINMEN DANCE AT CASTLE ON SATURDAY

Everybody will board the cars and ride merrily on to the big ball which the Order of Trainmen are going to give tomorrow evening in Pythian Castle. It is seldom that a trainman stops long enough from his work to do a little dancing, and when he does you can expect one grand, long series of fun.

This is what the big ball, to be given at the Castle, will be. The place will be tastefully decorated and judging from the number of tickets sold there will be at least one hundred couples on the floor.

REV. SKINNER TO BE ORDAINED TODAY

Rev. S. K. Skinner, pastor of the San Pablo Baptist Church, will be regularly ordained today by official representatives of the Baptist Church in this state. Many prominent clergymen of the bay section will be on hand at the ordination services, which will start at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon. The services will be at the San Pablo Church.

Rev. Skinner has been preaching for twenty-two years, and several times the date for his ordaining has been set, but unforeseen difficulties have heretofore arisen compelling him to postpone the event.

VERSATILITY IS SHOWN BY READER

George B. Williams of New York, well known Shakespearean student, proved an apt entertainer yesterday morning when he gave a reading in the assembly room of the local high school to the entire student body. Williams gave an excellent representation of Shakespeare's great character, Falstaff in "Henry IV." By way of illustrating his versatility in reading the masters of literature, Williams concluded the entertainment by giving James Whitcomb Riley's "Trading Joe."

WRONG DOPE ENDS ROSE GARDEN OF NOTE

Mesdame E. B. Smallwood is weeping and gnashing her teeth and vowing vengeance on a hobo, who recently asked for the task of fixing up the beautiful garden of roses which she has taken much pride in, and which has caused so many to admire her Eighth street home.

After hiring the hobo Mrs. Smallwood gave him some money and told him to go and purchase some liquids with which to kill the vermin in the chicken house and the bugs on her roses. Two prescriptions were given the man.

Both were filled properly and the man returned to the yard to do the job. Mixing the chicken cleanser he proceeded to spray the roses, and then taking the flower bug exterminator he sprayed the chicken house. Now Mrs. Smallwood is wondering if the chickens will sprout flowers and the roses feathers. In the meantime the garden of roses has resembled a vacant lot.

Next Monday night Uniform Branch of the local Order of Moose will hold its business meeting, following which a squad drill will be held. The meeting is to be in Barnaman Hall. All members of the branch are expected to be present at the meeting.

ENTERTAIN YOUNG FRIENDS.

Wednesday night Mrs. W. S. Runyon and Mrs. William McCreagh entertained a number of the members of Richmond's younger social set at the home of Mrs. Runyon on Nicol avenue. The motif for the party was the visit of Miss Cora Pope and Miss Mildred McCreagh, who are visiting in Richmond.

The decorations were chiefly in accord with St. Patrick's Day. Several vocal solos were rendered by Miss McCreagh. The evening of enjoyment was concluded with dancing and refreshments.

Those present were Misses Amy Freeman, Mildred Brignone, Musetta Hopkins, Helen Cowan, Hazel McCracken, Goldie Gnaga, Murrel Fitzpatrick, Mildred McCreagh and Cora Pope; Gerald Pecharich, Bob Flemer, James McCann, Jeph White, Vernie Read, George Greathouse, Joda Lamore, Donald Church, Elmer Conn and Eddy Fitzpatrick.

MOOSE DRUM CORPS PARTY IS TONIGHT

The Ladies of the Moose Drum Corps will hold a whist party tomorrow night at the home of Mrs. F. Bosworth at 421 Fourth street. The Moose parties are always popular, and without doubt this latest attraction will draw a large crowd. The price of score cards is 25 cents. Everyone is invited to attend.

Two new members were inducted at the meeting of the local lodge of Rebekahs, held last night in Bank Hall. The meeting was an overflow one, the crowd completely filling the big hall. Following the business of the evening, dancing was the diversion. The dance was continued until a late hour. Before final adjournment was taken refreshments were served.

MAZZA CAMPAIGN MEETING TO BE HELD

The John J. Mazza Senatorial Club is arranging to hold a campaign meeting in the interests of Mr. Mazza's candidacy in the auditorium of the Lincoln school next Thursday evening, March 26. The principal speakers will be Franklin Hichborn, the author of the "Story of the California Legislature of 1913," and Dr. Frederick Burk, president of the San Francisco State Normal School. Mr. Hichborn is the recognized authority on progressive legislation and Dr. Burk is an educator of national reputation, so that those who attend are assured of hearing two of the ablest men in the state discuss the issues of the recall campaign.

A visit to the beach was enjoyed by the members of the Wednesday Afternoon Sewing Club. Lunch was taken by the women. The afternoon was spent in sewing. Those in the party were Mrs. H. W. Bryant, Mrs. B. Swearingen, Mrs. F. Tiller, Mrs. Taylor, Mrs. Gallagher, Mrs. Brown, Mrs. Halslys, Mrs. Yahn and Miss Florence Duncan.

AID TO MEET.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the First Presbyterian Church will hold a business meeting in the church this afternoon. All members of the society are asked to be present.

KNIGHTS TO HOLD BIG MEETING IN OAKLAND

The number "13" will again figure in the records of the local lodge of Knights of Pythias. The number, which many think is a hoodoo, but which the Richmond Knights think is a good luck omen, has figured in nearly every important event in the annals of the lodge.

Tonight thirteen candidates will be initiated into the lodge at the Rathbone Bible class in Oakland. At that time the page degree will be conferred.

The Knights plan to invade Oakland with a big representation. A special car has been chartered, which will leave the Sixth street switch at 7:25. The destination of the car will be the K. of P. hall in Oakland. The return to the city, after the initiatory services, will be made on the same car.

The rank will be conferred on the Bible which was the original property of Justus Rathbone, founder of the lodge. The Bible was presented to the Pythians by Rathbone's daughter. It has only been used on the Pacific Coast a limited number of times.

The Richmond men who will be initiated into the mysteries of Pythianism tonight are H. F. Yaeger, J. M. Hutchings, Carl Black, J. F. Rouleau, J. K. Smith, C. E. Sisson, C. W. Nieman, B. Manharris, W. R. Hayes, H. J. Roden, A. O. Anderson, F. G. Kane and C. E. Cassidy.

SUIT IS STARTED FOR DAMAGES TO AUTO TRUCK

Morris Poore and Bruce Poore, doing business under the firm name of Poore Brothers, and H. P. Lauritzen want the Santa Fe to pay them $2000 for an auto truck. They charge that it was demolished by a locomotive of a Santa Fe freight train on December 29 last at Richmond when W. B. Clark was at the throttle of the engine and was speeding at more than thirty miles an hour through the city limits, which is inhibited by the ordinances of the terminal town. A. C. Sapiro of San Francisco is the attorney for the suitors.

PAINTING AND PAPERING.

Do you know we are giving you the profit made on paper. Say a 25-cent paper we give you for 12¢. Why? Because we don't pay any store rent. We have sample books from one of the leading wall paper firms in San Francisco. Select your paper one day, get it the next. All we want is to hang your paper. Now figure with us. You will be surprised the saving. Just imagine the money made on wall paper. You get this. We paint also. Guarantee to mix all paint on job; use nothing but lead and oil or Acme prepared paints. We run no coal oil wagon. Mr. Contractor, think this over. Your reputation is at stake. If your painting fails in say a year's time. Bad isn't it? Now whether we get your business or not, demand your paint to be of pure lead and oil or some good standard paint and same to be mixed on job. Mr. Property Owner, pay attention. We have a first-class sign shop in connection. For estimates call for W. E. Walker or A. B. Connor, at SQUARE DEAL HARDWARE CO. 315 Macdonald ave. Phone 286.

Many Richmond people will be interested to know that D. L. Coleman at 225 Macdonald avenue conducts a complete steam cleaning and dyeing plant. Phone 621. 3-5-1m

HOME RULE TAX ADVOCATED BY PROMINENT LOCAL JURIST

By JUDGE JOHN ROTH.

When Australia was taken by conquest from the natives, its best lands were granted in large tracts to the nobility and officials of the invading army in fee simple. The settlement of the country was very much retarded by the owners of those grants, who were non-residents and had the English idea that the soil should remain in large estates intact. But the new settlers of that country were progressive and believed it better to have the land divided up into small farms and worked by its owners.

How to get those large grants divided against the will of the owners, who were so rich and powerful, was indeed a most perplexing question to those poverty-stricken settlers in that new land. Luckily, however, a few copies of a little book published by Henry George, entitled "Progress and Poverty," found their way to that new world. It pointed out to those ambitious world builders the remedy, and they grasped it at once. They at first reduced the tax rate on personal property and improvements one half.

This brought a measure of relief as the land speculator had to shoulder a larger proportion of the burden. This encouraged the settlers also, as that tax could not be shifted. The land owners had it to pay to prevent it being sold for taxes. The next move was to strike the other half from the improvements also. This left the single land tax. This was fought by the landlords through all the courts in Australia, and won by the people. An appeal was taken to the highest court in England, where the law was sustained that the people had a right to tax themselves anyway they saw fit.

In other words, home rule in taxation, just such as the people of California are asking for now. Australia's big fight was then won. The people wanted rights of way, also, in and through those large tracts for highways and by-ways, for reservoir, sites, public parks, etc., but how to get them without paying four prices perplexed them again. Land owners are much the same everywhere; whenever the public needs a piece of land for a school site or park, tunnel or what not, that particular land becomes very valuable.

But those bush-rangers figured it out if we can't. As nothing but land was taxed, each land owner must, under oath, be his own assessor and place a value on each subdivision of his land for taxing purposes. They then put a rider on top of that, that the public, for all public purposes, could exercise the right of eminent domain by the simple act of taking any land the public needed by paying the owner 10 per cent above his valuation. That was the final act that "smoked the weasel out."

The land monopoly is completely broken up. Those large tracts are subdivided and sold at a price that any industrious family can pay the interest thereon and become owner of, in a few years. Were that the case here there would be no unemployed armies banded together menacing the country as they pass through, any more than there is in Australia. The single land tax has two main purposes: It taxes land into use and encourages industry by exempting it from taxation. Why should a man be penalized for building a house or a factory giving employment to a large number of men here in Richmond? Why should large tracts of land here be held out of use which do not pay the owner one hundredth of one per cent of the value he has fixed on it. He is simply able to hold it out of use until the public increases its value by building houses and factories around it, like the landlord in Australia did. And it will be broken up here by the people just as the people there broke it up.

Many laborers and business men owning homes, especially in Richmond, are afraid if the taxes of the corporations here, amounting to more than 50 per cent of the tax roll, were exempt, that it must necessarily be added to their homes. This is a mistake, as is clearly proven whenever it has been tried. Here is the reasoning. Every business man in this city is a laborer, just as much as though he worked for wages. The taxes that he pays are taken from the pay checks of his customers in additional prices.

The taxes that the railroad company pays are added to the freight bills and is also taken out of the pay check of the consumer of the goods. The taxes of the oil company are paid by the users of coal-oil, gasoline and other products, and so on through the list of corporations. In no case does the corporation pay the tax. The money they pay into the city treasury are collected from the pay checks of the ultimate consumer long before taxes are due. In other words, they shift the tax onto the other fellow. The man with a house and lot cannot do that. He must pay not only his own tax out of his pay check, but the tax of every man who furnishes him and his family with the necessities of life.

Every business man or corporation adds their taxes to the selling price of their goods just as they do the pay for hired help and the consumer pays it. Exempting personal property and improvements will necessarily raise the value of the lands for taxing purposes on which the improvements are located.

But it will also raise the value proportionately of all the unimproved land similarly situated, for instance, if the improvements on Macdonald avenue were exempt from taxation, the lots on which these improvements are built would necessarily have to be assessed higher than they are now assessed to raise the necessary money to run our city government. The money thus lost to the city would be made up by assessing all that land between First street and the A. T. & S. F. Railroad, and all the vacant lots just the same as though they were all improved. In other words, those who have already and those who will in the future improve the town, shall no longer be penalized for so doing.

All lots similarly situated must be assessed the same, whether improved or not. This will naturally raise the taxes on all unimproved lots and lower the taxes on all improved lots. The tax on unimproved property cannot be shifted to the other fellow as it is now, because unimproved property produces nothing to which the owner can attach taxes. The Standard Oil Company and all the corporations and every lot owner, from the humble home of a day laborer to that beautiful building erected by the Elks, would have his taxes very materially decreased, and the difference would be added to the taxes on the unimproved lots similarly situated.

What an ideal Legislature we would have if all the members had the James C. Owens record of absenteeism.

HERMANN SONS ELECT THEIR OFFICERS

The Richmond Order of Hermann Sons elected officers at a meeting held in Bank Hall Wednesday night. Those elected follow: President, E. Forwick; vice president, G. Werner; corresponding secretary, Adolph Gieger; financial secretary, A. Elmhart; treasurer, John Hansen; trustee, S. D. Brasch.

The officers will be installed at a joint installation of Hermann Sons and Hermann Sisters, to be held in Bank Hall on the night of April 1. H. W. A. Weske of San Bernardino, grand president of the order in California, will be the installing officer. John Hansen and E. Pieper were elected delegates to the convention, which will convene in Bakersfield on May 11.

A report made at the meeting was to the effect that the committee recently appointed is arranging for the whist party of the Sons and Sisters to be given on the night of April 29.

HILTON FUNERAL FROM FAMILY HOME

The remains of the late Mrs. Nancy Jane Hilton, well known local matron and wife of Daniel Hilton, a local business man, who died on Wednesday night, following a long illness, will be tenderly interred from the old family home at Milton, San Joaquin county, this afternoon. The body was shipped from Richmond this morning. A number of relatives and lifelong friends of the deceased will be present at the last rites.

The Railroad Commission bill should be repealed, says James C. Owens, and we should return to former conditions. "Do the voters of the Ninth Senatorial District agree with him?"

PROBATION BOARD MEMBERS ARE LISTED

The members of the 1914 Probation Committee were appointed by Judge R. H. Letimer yesterday morning and all having accepted the appointments the members of the committee will in the future comprise the advisory board assisting the court and Probation Officer A. J. McMahon in handling all probation matters. The members of the committee are Mrs. T. A. Ross, Crockett; Miss Josie McCann of Martinez, Mrs. T. R. Curry of Stege, Ralph H. Wright of Martinez, Dr. W. S. George of Antioch, Dr. C. R. Blake of Richmond and Rev. Father E. O'Sullivan of Richmond.

The mother who works very hard and for very long is not likely to give birth to healthy, strong and mentally sound children. James C. Owens cares nothing for that, if the woman's work helps make some friend a few extra dollars.

Sample Ballot

INSTRUCTIONS TO VOTERS

To vote on the question of the recall of James C. Owens from the office of Member of the Senate of the State of California from the Ninth Senatorial District stamp a cross (X) in the voting square after the word "Yes," or after the word "No." No vote cast shall be counted for any candidate for such office unless the voter also votes on said question of the RECALL of the person sought to be recalled from said office. To vote for a candidate of your selection, stamp a cross (X) in the voting square next to the right of the name of such candidate. All marks except the cross (X) are forbidden. All distinguishing marks or erasures are forbidden and make the ballot void. If you wrongly stamp, tear or deface this ballot, return it to the inspector of election and obtain another.

QUESTION

Shall James C. Owens be recalled from the office of member of the Senate of the State of California from the Ninth Senatorial District.

YES	X
NO

CANDIDATES

State Senator, Ninth Senatorial District. Vote for One.

CHARLES EMMONS FISHER

RUDOLPH LEONHART

JOHN J. MAZZA

The following are the reasons set forth in the petition for demanding the recall of said James C. Owens:

Senator Owens repeatedly violated his pledges as a Democrat; broke his written promises to Labor; and assisted Big Business at crucial moments by his vote or by staying away.

His party platform favored a State Industrial Insurance system. He fathered an amendment to Boynton's Workmen's Compensation Bill that would have made such insurance an impossibility; just what insurance companies wanted.

His party platform declared in favor of extending the Woman's Eight Hour Law. In committee he voted for every proposition to limit its scope, even to exclude cotton mill employees already included in the law. Stayed away on final passage.

He voted against the Water Conservation Bill, to assist the power companies.

He voted against mining inspection and against improving working conditions and hours in mines, to please mining corporations.

He introduced Senate Bill 243 which was so bad that the Railroad Commission said officially it should have been entitled "An Act to Repeal the most important provisions of the Public Utilities Act respecting railroads."

The last two days he dodged or was absent on 113 roll calls. The above are but a few of the many reasons why Senator Owens should be recalled.

The following is the justification of said James C. Owens of his course in office.

My answer is, will the People of Contra Costa and Marin consent that San Francisco Barbary Coast Dive Keepers, Labor Bosses and Lobbyists shall dictate who will represent our People in the Senate. If these self constituted leaders of a minority can recall a Legislator who refuses to desert the majority of the people at their bidding, then our laws might as well be made by these lobbyists in San Francisco.

I supported all measures which were in the interest of the masses, UNION AND NON-UNION, and my recall is sought because I refused to be bullied into voting for vicious bills not in the interest of the whole PEOPLE which would have been destructive to many of our industries and which were designed to make the domination of those dive keepers and labor bosses more complete.

The Contra Costa Co. Central Committee decided that I did not violate the principles of the Democratic Platform and that I did my best to represent all the interests of this District, farmers and manufacturers, but I did refuse to be a party to measures which would have injured our factories, increased the burden of taxpayers and driven industries from our midst.

I was present at most all Roll Calls of importance and only absent on Public Business. I was a member of seven important committees and worked hard to pass bills securing to Richmond its tidelands; also a bill which passed the last days of the session, appropriating Twenty-five Thousand Dollars for San Rafael Creek, as well as many other measures.

Being limited to three hundred words on ballot, a specific answer will follow through the press.

If you want your senator free to use his judgement on public matters, vote "No" on my recall.

JAMES C. OWENS.

and contriving crude garments from skins and fiber.

This charming natural environment will add interest to the naive, bewitching characterization of Miss Pickford.

Later, fate sends another castaway to this island, for whose happiness the little half-savage Nina suffers much and eventually sacrifices her life. The pathos of the tragic denouement of the story is tenderly softened by Miss Pickford's delicate and repressed portrayal.

The little actress attains a high dramatic power in this production, and strikes a strong note of uplift in the supreme sacrifice which is the climax of Nina's devotion to her lover.

TO CLAIM GIRL IN LINCOLN FOR BRIDE

Lincoln, Neb., is the objective point of Apprentice Instructor C. W. Andrews of the Santa Fe Company, who left for the East last night on the Western Pacific overland. When he arrives in Lincoln, Andrews will claim Miss Bessie Walton, a boyhood sweetheart, as his bride.

The nuptials will be celebrated at the bride's home in Lincoln. The couple will spend their honeymoon in the Grand Canyon of the Colorado. In the near future they will return to Richmond, where they will reside permanently in a cottage that Andrews has fitted up for his bride-to-be at 27 Seventh street.

WASHINGTON COUPLE ARE VISITING HERE

Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Macdonald, residents of Spokane Falls, Wash., are in Richmond on a short visit. They are guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. N. M. Blankenship, who reside on Fourth street. Mr. Macdonald is combining business with pleasure on the trip. After a few days more in Richmond the Macdonalds will leave for a trip through the Pacific Southwest.

James C. Owens declares that breathing cement dust is healthy. It probably is more healthy than some of the occupations James C. follows, but even then it is not ideal.

All persons, firms, companies, corporations and associations are required to deliver at the Assessor's office, Martinez, immediately, a statement under oath of all the property, both real and personal, owned or claimed by him, her or them, or in their possession, or held in trust for others, at 12 o'clock meridian, on

First Monday of March, 1914, in accordance with the new constitution. Refusal or neglect to make such sworn statement of all property owned or held in trust will subject the person so refusing or neglecting to make such sworn statement to the full penalty of the law.

All property owners should see that their property is correctly described on the assessment roll.

Immediate attention is necessary, as work on the roll has already been commenced. Proper blanks may be had at the Assessor's office or of his deputies.

All statements must be in the Assessor's office on or before the 1st day of May, 1914.

The STATE POLL TAX of Two Dollars and ROAD POLL TAX of Two Dollars each are now due and payable at this office, or to a Deputy Assessor.

STATE POLL TAX and ROAD POLL TAX are due and payable on demand.

G. O. MEESE,
County Assessor.

ELLIOT PRESENT AT YOEMAN MEETING

W. J. Elliott, the state manager of the Yoeman Lodge, was a visitor at the meeting of that order held last night in Pythian Castle. He delivered an address on the lodge activities, which was well received. The attendance of last night augurs well for the future success of the lodge, and speaks well for the interest that is being taken in it at the present time by its members.

CAPTURED MAN TELLS QUEER STORY

Dazed and unable to give but an incoherent account of himself, a man giving his name as George Taylor and his residence as San Francisco, was taken into custody last night by Officers Barry and Wright. The capture was made near Point Orient.

Early in the evening persons who sighted the man reported the matter and late Wednesday night after a diligent search, Barry and Wright sighted him. When found he was stretched out on the road near the old shrimp camp.

That the man is demented is thought probable. He asserted to the officers that he left San Francisco with two friends last Thanksgiving Day. He claims they visited several saloons, and after that came a long blank. He was unable to explain how he happened to be at Point Orient, where he was seen different times for the past three days.

Taylor carries a card in the Structural Ironworkers' Union. The police are investigating.

PRETTY COTTAGE WILL SOON CHANGE HANDS IF STEARNS GETS AN OFFER

One of the most attractive cottages in the city will soon change hands. It is on Fifth street, between Chanslor avenue and Bissell, and C. H. Stearns, the well known carpenter, declares that he has had many offers to sell in the past, but up till recently would not part with it. The house is to be sold on terms.

That another big factory is a possibility for Richmond is evidenced by the visit of Alexander J. Porter, president of the Shredded Wheat Biscuit factory, which operates at Niagara Falls, New York. Porter is in the bay region looking for a location for another factory.

He was in Richmond yesterday, and while here was a guest of H. W. Wernse, the secretary of the Richmond Industrial Commission. He was shown about the city in an automobile, and he expressed himself as favorably impressed with this community.

Porter's visit was brought about through the agency of H. H. Turley, secretary of the Sequoia Commercial Club. When Turley heard that Porter was in this section he wired the biscuit magnate an invitation to spend the day here. The invitation was accepted.

ITALIAN TRIAL IS NOW GOING ON IN COURT

A forensic battle is waging in the extra session of the Superior Court, presided over by Judge J. E. Barber. In the endeavor of Assistant District Attorney A. S. Ormsby to convict and Attorney J. H. Creeley to save Joe Ginotti from the consequences of an alleged felony committed upon Antonio Gossio at Richmond.

The jury impaneled to try the case is composed of Henry Rhodes, C. A. DeBarrows, S. H. Burns, William J. Livingston, Josiah Boucher, C. A. Apperson, H. J. Christian, A. E. Hodges, M. J. Callahan, W. M. Hughes, George M. Fraser and Daniel Matheson.

NEW COUNTY MAP IS NOW BEING FORMULATED

A new county map that promises to be one of the most complete ever compiled is now in process of making and will be ready for distribution in the near future.

The map is the work of H. C. Glass, Ralph Arnold and J. C. Hanna of Martinez. They are being assisted by H. V. Johnson, an expert draughtsman and engineer. It will be 8 1/2 feet in size and is arranged to show the subdivisions of tracts by supervisor districts and school districts, giving the name and acreage of each property owner. In the municipalities lots are shown by numbers.

Prominent features of the map are the highways, railroads, both steam and electric, and the manufacturing centers, and the proposed new highway boulevard along the waterfront from Martinez to the Alameda county line near Richmond. The completeness of the map in detail is shown in the fact that every property owner of record on the first Monday in March appears on the map.

Messrs. Arnold, Glass and Hanna have been engaged on this work for the past five months and are determined that it will be one of the most comprehensive ever issued in the state. They plan to produce a special map from this data for the supervisors in colors to be used at the exposition.

JUDGE HANNUM OPENS LAW OFFICE

The new law offices of Judge C. S. Hannum, one of the best known jurists in the entire bay section, were opened yesterday morning. The offices, which are among the best appointed in the city, are located in the Pillow building in room 12.

Years of experience and active practice resulted in the establishment of a legal reputation for Hannum that is not eclipsed anywhere. The judge has practiced in the civil and federal courts of other states, as well as in California courts.

Hannum was in Alaska a number of years, and while there took an active part in politics. He is not anticipating running for any office, but expects to put in some hard licks for Republican candidates in the near future.

"What are campaign promises between friends," would be a good motto for James C. Owens when he meets the men whom he served in the last Legislature.
